

St. Andrew church in Krakow - one of the oldest Romanesque churches in town.

1999-2001 - conservation of 3 Baroque side altars in the church, including conservation of wooden construction and sculptured decorations, conservation of painted pictures, reconstruction of missing elements of wood-carving, monochromy and gildings.