

St Cross Church in Krakow- XIVth century building made from brick and stone, having a simple concise compact block.

In 2003-2006 the conservation of the external elevation both brick and stone-works was done.

